

RIGHTEOUS WRATH. CATHOLICS ARE INFURIATED. Laymen Roused to Anger by Actions of Mob.

Papers of Metropolis Gen- erally Deplore Event.

Cardinal Gibbons Visiting Arundel Castle.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

LONDON, Sept. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Roman Catholic laymen are infuriated today over the mob attack on the Catholic procession around Westminster Cathedral when the parade of cardinals and church dignitaries was broken up by the hooting thousands of radical Protestants.

A hurricane of shouts and yells went up to greet the advance guard of the procession. The mob swept forward, bearing the police with it. Mingled with the yells could be heard the shrieks of women. The police drove the crowd back foot by foot, hurling men to the ground to the right and left, but in a few minutes they were forced back themselves until they had to occupy the narrow space between the procession and the cathedral. The parade was cut in two, but after a struggle the way was cleared again. Through the yelling mob, Cardinal Vannutelli walked on, followed by his head thrown back, looking straight forward, his tall figure towering above the other cardinals behind him, and the priests before him. Equally calm were the dignitaries following him, paying little heed to the surging crowd, who at the instigation of the police, had fallen out of the straggling procession and stood with their robes touching the police behind them.

After a hard struggle the procession reentered the cathedral, where Cardinal Gibbons preached. London newspapers today generally deplore the attack. The prelates and clergy who came to London to attend the Eucharistic Congress scattered today to the four points of the compass. One party including the papal legate, Cardinal Vannutelli, and Cardinal Gibbons, went to Arundel castle, the magnificent seat of the Duke of Norfolk, as the guests of the Duke at a big house party.

Cardinal Gibbons will leave Arundel castle tomorrow for Ireland. He will first visit friends at Wexford, and afterward will be the guest of Rt. Rev. Francis J. MacDonagh, bishop of Galway and Kilmaedagh. The cardinal will sail from Queenstown, October 1 for New York.

CONSIDERABLE ANXIETY FELT AT THE VATICAN.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)

ROME, Sept. 14.—Considerable anxiety has been felt at the Vatican since the opening of the Eucharistic Congress in London with regard to the procession of the blessed sacrament in the streets, partly because it was feared that the procession might be prohibited, and partly because if it was not prohibited it might be the cause of unpleasant incidents.

The Pope, whose faith in British liberty is very great, has been optimistic all the while, and when it was learned that it had been decided to abandon the procession on the original lines, he felt greatly disappointed, although after deep thought, he concluded that this was the wisest thing, for fear the Catholic manifestation might create a misunderstanding as to the intentions and desires of the church of Rome.

The Correspondence, Romano, a Catholic organ, publishes the following communication which evidently is inspired by the Vatican.

"The procession did not occur. Although regretting this omission, we wish to point out that we appreciate the liberty and respect which surround the Eucharistic Congress under the shadow of the British flag.

"A few Protestant societies aspiring to archeological fame by exhibiting past processions, were merely the proverbial fly trying to drag the coach. If the fly had been alone the anti-eucharistic character of the sixteenth century would never have left the museum of religious processions.

What moved the coach was the efficacious intervention of certain politicians who depicted the procession as a manifestation disgraceful to the French flag and thus hurt to the interests of the Anglo-French entente.

"For the same reason the words of the Pope to the French Legation Monday were taken advantage of by the enemies of the church pretending that the Pontiff had praised British liberty for the purpose of humiliating the pillars the small tyrants of Paris.

"Nevertheless, the Eucharistic Congress remains a glorious memory for the Catholic world, as well as a proof of British liberty and hospitality. The omission of the procession will serve to show to the public how what matters come directly or indirectly at sectarian inspirations against the Catholic church."

CHOLERA SUBSIDING. Reports from Philippines Indicate Better Aspect—Three Americans Are Victims.

MANILA (P. I.) Sept. 14.—The outbreak of cholera is reported as assuming a more favorable aspect in the provinces. In Pangasinan, Island of Luzon, where conditions were regarded as most serious, the disease has been practically eliminated.

A few cases are still making their appearance in this city, the victims of last week including three Americans. The authorities declare that the cholera is not epidemic, and are working diligently to end its spread.

It is said that the majority of the cases in Manila have been brought from the provinces.

MRS. THAW'S PICTURE SEIZED.

Study in Brown of Evelyn Taken on Judgment for $238 Seized by Milliner.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—When the Sheriff today seized a portrait of Mrs. Harry K. Thaw, and owned by her, it developed for the first time that a milliner had obtained a judgment against Mrs. Thaw September 2 for $238.

The portrait is a study in brown of Mrs. Thaw by Harrington Mann and she is said to have posed for it at the request of Stanford White, who was killed by her husband. It is enclosed in a remarkable brass frame which was designed by Mr. White. It is believed the picture would bring much more than the amount of the judgment if put up at a sheriff's sale.

The original bill of the milliner was for $388, representing furnishings for two days including visits at $125 and $125 each, and a suit at $140. Payments aggregating $450 were made on account, and then were stopped.

THAW CHANGES JAILS. [ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] Poughkeepsie (N. Y.) Sept. 14.—Harry K. Thaw left the Dutchess county Jail today, custody of the Sheriff Townsend and accompanied by his counsel, Charles Morschauser, boarded a train for Tarrytown. From there he will travel by trolley to the Westchester County Jail, where Thaw hereafter will be in the custody of Sheriff Lane.

Chicago Suburban Train Crashes Into Special Filled With Indians, Killing One Passenger and Wounding Twenty-Eight. Fog and Smoke from Forest Fires. Official Statement Blames Engineer.

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—One woman, Esther Haxox, of Chicago, was killed and twenty-eight persons injured in a wreck at Chesterton, Ind., on the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railroad early today. At least 100 excursionists were on the train, which was carrying a large number of Indians from the Chicago Indian Reservation.

An official statement issued by the Lake Shore road declares the accident was due to the engineer on the suburban train, who was disregarding the automatic block signal. This was probably largely due to the mixture of fog and smoke from northern forest fires obscuring the light.

The suburban train crashed into the rear end of the special excursion train, bound for Indianapolis over the Lake Erie and Western, while the excursion train was standing at the station in the Indiana town, which is forty miles from Chicago, a junction point distant from large towns, and few houses. The excursion train was carrying a large number of Indians from the Chicago Indian Reservation.

PITH OF NEWS FROM THE MIDDLE WEST.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Chicago was again a smoke rival of Pittsburgh today. With weather conditions unchanged the city was still under a pall caused by the forest fires in the northern tier of states. Although Chicago is 600 miles away from the fire zone the smoke from the burning forest blanketed the city today, hiding the sun and causing a haze that many mistook for fog or clouds. Despite the threatening appearance of the sky, there apparently was little prospect of rain. A few showers have fallen in the northwest and south, but the humidity was low and the prospects for a break in the long drought was not considered bright by the officials of the United States Weather Bureau. Today's maximum temperature was 74 and the minimum 69 deg. Middle West temperatures.

NET EARNINGS BREAK RECORD.

Last July Most Prosperous One for Pacific.

Reduction in Running Ex- penses Bears Fruit.

Cheerful Figures Furnished by Harriman Lines.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Net earnings of the Union Pacific and the Southern Pacific for July were the largest that either of these roads has reported for that month in its history. In the case of both, however, gross earnings showed a material decrease as compared with last year.

The good showing in net was brought about by a material reduction in operating expenses. In July last year the operating ratio of the Union Pacific was 55.6 per cent. of gross earnings. This year it was brought down to 47.2 per cent. In the same way, the operating ratio of the Southern Pacific was brought down from 67.4 per cent. of gross earnings in July last year to 59 per cent. for the month this year.

While gross earnings did not make so good a comparative showing as net, when they are analyzed the showing loses much of its unsatisfactory character. This is due to the fact that July last year was a banner month in the history of these roads, records being considerably in advance of those of 1906, though that was a highly prosperous year.

Gross earnings of the Union Pacific for July this year amounted to $6,749,684, as compared with $6,207,829 in 1906, and $4,455,712 in 1905. The figures for the Southern Pacific for July this year are $9,720,406, while for the same month in 1906 they were $9,213,738, and for July 1905, they were $8,119,177.

HUGHES LEADS AT SARATOGA.

Governor Will Probably Be Renominated.

Opposition Unable to Unite on Candidate.

Root's Speech Important Feature of Day.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

SARATOGA (N. Y.) Sept. 14.—The renomination of Theodore Roosevelt as Governor of New York by the Republican State Convention at its session tomorrow seemed at a late hour tonight the probable outcome of a battle in which most of the fighting has been done by the opposition.

Impartial observers see no means by which the defeat of the Governor can actually be accomplished and the anti-Hughes leaders themselves begin to admit that their cause is probably hopeless.

Authorized dispatches from Oyster Bay reiterating the opinion of President Roosevelt that Gov. Hughes should be renominated created somewhat of a sensation, even though the announcement was not entirely unexpected.

Secretary of State Elihu Root, who is acting as chairman of the convention, refused tonight to express a preference for a candidate.

ROOT CENTRAL FIGURE.

The matter reached its crisis tonight in a conference of the leaders following a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Republican State Convention. This conference was still in session at a late hour and the general belief was that it could have but one ending—a recognition of defeat on the part of the anti-Hughes forces.

Meanwhile the Committee on Resolutions appointed a subcommittee to draft and recommend a platform and adjourned until tomorrow.

Mr. Root was the central figure in the first session of the convention. The convention effected temporary organization; heard the speech of Mr. Root, as temporary chairman, and adjourned until tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The welcome accorded to Secretary Root surpassed in enthusiasm if not in duration those which were accorded upon the mention of the names of President Roosevelt, Gov. Hughes or the Presidential nominee, W. H. Taft, himself.

TAFT INDORSERD.

Secretary Root's address consumed a little less than an hour and a half in delivery. The speech was directed to delegates and alternates, numbering more than 2000 persons, and the people in the galleries heard the speech with evident approval. It dealt with the country's condition, the duties of the Governor and the responsibilities of the people.

A feature of the session was the introduction by Charles W. Anderson of New York, the colored member-at-large of the State Committee, who is a deputy collector of internal revenue for the Second district, of an extended resolution paying glowing tribute to the character and public service of Mr. Taft. The resolution was adopted with a shout and the secretary was instructed to telegraph it to Mr. Taft.

SECRETARY ROOT'S SPEECH.

Secretary Root, in beginning his speech, said:

"Just a decade has passed since we were assembled in this place engaged in the business of nominating Theodore Roosevelt for Governor of New York. We are now to nominate a successor to Charles E. Hughes as Governor, and we are to perform that duty according to our wisdom, our loyalty to party and to country, in such a way that the Empire State shall rarely cast her electoral vote for the Republican candidate to succeed the same Theodore Roosevelt as President of the United States."

"We have a record which forbids discouragement or doubt in the performance of our task. We can turn to the administrations now drawing to a close, both in the State and in the nation, and with confidence ask every American voter to say whether they have not met in the great Government the qualities of leadership, of wisdom, of courage, of integrity, of devotion to duty, of which we have seen in the past and which we are entitled to credit for them."

NOTABLE RESEMBLANCE.

That there have been special and notable characteristics of resemblance in the two administrations, the national and the State, Secretary Root declared was demonstrated by the fact that neither Governor nor President had relied upon that view of expediency in the conduct of public affairs which is to be gained by secret conferences in closed rooms, by the fact that much more than ordinary vigor and sternness in the enforcement of law had characterized the conduct of the Executive.

Of the attitude of the administration in the matter of public administration, Mr. Root said that the President was pressing it at all hazards and became compulsory and inevitable. It was a matter of the national government to prevent discrimination by the railroads. The efforts put forward by the State administration to bring violators to justice was described in language.

ENFORCEMENT OF LAW.

"The novelty of this strenuous law enforcement has not consisted in applying any new theories of governmental control or in the exercise of any new powers, but rather in breaking up the sleepy old methods of procedure, in securing practically adequate administrative statutes to give life to the old constitutional and statutory declarations of general rules which were hitherto inoperative, and in putting force and momentum into the attack on established and customary evil."

Of this feeling, awakened by Republican law enforcement, the Democratic party now readily takes the benefit and one of the serious questions of this campaign is to be whether the people of the country are going to permit the Republican party to suffer for having forced the law in the State and the nation or whether they are going to back up law enforcement by their approval shown in their votes for the Republican candidates."

At great length Secretary Root reviewed the work of the various departments of the national government during the present administration. This he characterized as the practical effectiveness of action which should be highly satisfactory to the people of the country. Continuing Mr. Root said:

"The substantial question for the voters to answer in November is how shall we secure a continuance of the good government under which we have attained to all our blessings? How select public agencies which will maintain the peace and order and prosperity we now have and at the same time press forward and make practically effective the reforms which this Republican administration has inaugurated, and upon the value and beneficence of which all parties are agreed?"

"Plainly the true successor to this great duty is Secretary Taft. His wide experience and long years of successful service under heavy responsibilities as jurist, legislator, administrator, his intimate acquaintance with the public affairs of our country, his proven wisdom, his skill and his capacity. The confidence and sympathy and intimate association with which he has stood by and aided President Roosevelt in every stage of the policies, which by the common consent of both parties now lie before us to be continued and developed in practical effectiveness, indicate him as the best possible man to continue these policies."

DEMOCRATIC PLANKS.

Turning his attention to the slogan of Democracy: "Shall the people rule?" the speaker said:

"Are not the people ruling through him, their chosen Executive, so far as his part of the government is concerned? Has not every Congressman chosen by the people, every Senator chosen by its own legislature, selected by the people of the State for the performance of that duty?"

Secretary Root then took up the more important planks of the Democratic platform, discussing the reforms to which the party's candidates are pledged. On this subject the Secretary said:

"Upon the attitude and action of the government toward trusts, railroads and all the great corporations there is no substantial issue between the two parties. The great difference between the parties is that in dealing with these evils the Republican party shows efficient performance and proved competency, while the Democratic party shows nothing but campaign promises."

Secretary Root concluded his speech as follows:

"What is furnished by the record is how can the Democratic party at large show that it is competent to maintain the prosperity we have and to execute the promises of reform it tender?"

WASTED OPPORTUNITIES.

"No proof whatever of that is offered. All the evidence we have is the other way. The majority of us have not yet forgotten the second administration of Grover Cleveland which ended only with the year, 1897. The Democracy then had its opportunity to show the world what it could do with government, for it possessed the executive offices, the majority of the Senate and a majority of the House."

"The opportunity to exercise that control for the public benefit was wasted. Disorder and confusion reigned throughout the entire four years, in the executive, legislative and judicial departments, and no effective action was demonstrated."

"No promises were kept. No reforms were accomplished."

NOT GUILTY.

SPEAKER CANNON HELD BLAMELESS.

REPRESENTATIVE LITTLEFIELD EXONERATES HIM.

Says No One Has His Authority to Hold Former for Failure of His Bill Prohibiting Shipment of Liquor Into Prohibition Districts to Be Reported to House.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—The action of the Methodist denomination in opposing Speaker Cannon on the ground that he had violated the constitution by his conduct in the House, which was designed to prevent the shipment of intoxicating liquors into prohibition districts has called forth a letter from Congressman Littlefield to Speaker Cannon, in which he said that he was not a member of the denomination and that he was not responsible for the action of the denomination.

"As to the Littlefield bill which I was not able to get reported from the committee at the last session, no one has any authority from me to hold me responsible for that result. I suppose it is a matter of fact, in fact, that this bill raises some grave and close constitutional questions. While I feel that the bill would be sustained, and I think it ought to pass, the question is by no means free from doubt, and I am not prepared to take the responsibility of introducing that bill into the House."

"In fact, some of the ablest lawyers that I know entertained that view. I have never discussed this phase of the question with you, that I understand to be your view."

"It is not to be assumed, I take it, that a member is elected Speaker of the House with the right to express and to vote on a right other members without subjecting himself to the criticism of the House. I am not a member of the House, and I am not a member of the House, and I am not a member of the House."

"I certainly hope that any view you may entertain on this question will be a help to you in your campaign. I think you fully realize, if your constituents do not, the vital importance of having a man of your ability, intelligence, independence, courage and intimate knowledge of public affairs not only in the House of Representatives, but in the position that you now fill with such great acceptance to all members."

MANY BALLOTS DEFECTIVE.

WASHINGTON PRIMARY RESULTS. (BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SEATTLE, Sept. 14.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) More than 2000 votes for Henry McBride, candidate for Republican nomination for Governor in the primary election last Tuesday, were lost in King county alone through failure of voters to mark their ballots properly. Taking this as an indication, ballots thrown out throughout the State must have numbered many thousands.

The first session of the convention will be held at noon tomorrow when Mr. Bryan, today spoke twice, the first time at Annapolis, where he discussed the issues of the campaign, and tonight in this city in the Fifth Regiment armory.

BRYAN IN BALTIMORE.

MAKES TWO SPEECHES. (ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

BALTIMORE (Md.) Sept. 14.—William J. Bryan, Democratic candidate for President, today spoke twice, the first time at Annapolis, where he discussed the issues of the campaign, and tonight in this city in the Fifth Regiment armory.

proposals into the policies of the country.

WHERE ARE OLD ISSUES?

"He does not say whether he is still in favor of the free coinage of silver. He does not now answer the question whether, if he were President and an emergency should arise, he would be called to exercise his discretion affirmative to maintaining the parity between gold and silver, he would exercise that discretion."

He has not permitted himself to discuss in this campaign the issue of anti-imperialism which was the paramount issue in 1898, as he declared, and in respect to which the policy of the Republican party has been vindicated by the event, so that tranquility and the Philippines and even the Independents prefer a Republican victory to Mr. Bryan's promises.

CELEBRATE ADMISSION.

Californians in Capital City Mark Anniversary.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Celebrating the anniversary of the admission of California to the Union, the California State Association of the District of Columbia held one of its largest and most enthusiastic meetings Sunday night in the parlors of the Hotel House. Tales of the forty-niners told at large gathering.

Many Predictions for State's Future Development.

As a matter of fact, the real anniversary of California's entrance into the galaxy of States was September 9, but the memorial meeting planned for that date was necessarily postponed. M. F. O'Donoghue presided last night in the absence of C. M. O'Donoghue, who is on his vacation in Vermont.

An interesting address was made by A. J. Bohrer, historian of the association, and the only original forty-niner present. He declared that the hardships overcome by the early settlers in their rush across the prairies, deserts and mountains to the far western coast, and their methodical efforts, were largely responsible for laying the firm foundation of government for California.

The story of the planting of the American flag on Mt. Sitka in the days of Secretary Seward were told by Joseph L. Keefe.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—The quartermaster's department of the army has plans to increase the accommodations at Fort Ward, Washington, to provide for a garrison of two companies of the 10th Cavalry. The plan is to build a new barracks, which will be completed by the end of the year.

Later other work will be done. A plan for providing for the military reserve of the State of California is being considered by the War Department.

CELEBRATE ADMISSION.

Californians in Capital City Mark Anniversary.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Celebrating the anniversary of the admission of California to the Union, the California State Association of the District of Columbia held one of its largest and most enthusiastic meetings Sunday night in the parlors of the Hotel House. Tales of the forty-niners told at large gathering.

Many Predictions for State's Future Development.

As a matter of fact, the real anniversary of California's entrance into the galaxy of States was September 9, but the memorial meeting planned for that date was necessarily postponed. M. F. O'Donoghue presided last night in the absence of C. M. O'Donoghue, who is on his vacation in Vermont.

An interesting address was made by A. J. Bohrer, historian of the association, and the only original forty-niner present. He declared that the hardships overcome by the early settlers in their rush across the prairies, deserts and mountains to the far western coast, and their methodical efforts, were largely responsible for laying the firm foundation of government for California.

The story of the planting of the American flag on Mt. Sitka in the days of Secretary Seward were told by Joseph L. Keefe.

PROVIDING FOR SOLDIERS. BUILDING BARRACKS. (ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—The quartermaster's department of the army has plans to increase the accommodations at Fort Ward, Washington, to provide for a garrison of two companies of the 10th Cavalry. The plan is to build a new barracks, which will be completed by the end of the year.

Later other work will be done. A plan for providing for the military reserve of the State of California is being considered by the War Department.

The plan is to build a new barracks, which will be completed by the end of the year. The plan is to build a new barracks, which will be completed by the end of the year.

HE CONFESSES SWEEPINGLY.
Partner of Sutherland Tells of Their Crimes.
Admits His Part in Hold-ups and One Shooting.
Acted as Silent Guard With Ready Revolver.
Frederick Horning, the partner of Sutherland, who murdered Capt. Walter H. Auble last Wednesday morning, yesterday made a sweeping confession to the police, in which he admitted having taken part in the shooting of Caesar Vervoort and in several hold-ups and street-car robberies recently committed in Los Angeles.
If certain witnesses necessary to the prosecution can be located today, a complaint charging Horning with one or more felonies will be sworn to by Detectives Jones and Boyd this afternoon.
After almost a week of silence, Horning gave up. The sweating process had had its effect upon him. Every day he had been taken from his cell by the officers and put in a small room, where they tried questions at him until he became dizzy with listening.
With a tired look in his eyes, Horning yesterday faced the men who had hammered him, and he reluctantly began to make mistakes. He stumbled about in his explanations like a prize-fighter with a hard blow in the wind. Who staggers about at the ring trying to defend himself. Then the detectives knew they had their man. The mental strain had been too much for Horning. He could not bear up under it. It had been the hardest problem of his life to sit quiet while the officers accused him of being implicated in every crime Sutherland had been guilty of.
It was the old trick of charging a man with a great crime in order to compel him to admit a lesser one. As long as the officers accused Horning of the crimes they really believed he committed he held his tongue. When they took up the shooting of Sutherland he could no longer stand the accusations, about taking part in the hold-ups to avoid, as he thought, actually facing a murder charge.
TRAPPED BY HIS OWN LIES.
His face was as gray as ashes when he finally found himself trapped in the net work of his own lies, and sat helplessly facing the detectives. The officers were as nearly exhausted. With the end in sight they were fatigued from the mental strain under which they had been laboring.
Horning admitted that he was the silent partner in several of the hold-ups. He was a passenger on the Redondo car, the night Sutherland held it up. Horning sat quietly while his partner held his gun on the passengers. No one on the car suspected the quiet boy who watched to see that no shot was fired upon his partner. With the rest he submitted quietly. Sutherland did the work, his senses, alive and keen to the situation, the revolver concealed beneath his coat, ready for instant use in case any of the passengers made a false move.
In that way Horning played safe. He did not carry a gun and stand. What he wanted was results. He told the officers yesterday. He admitted having been within a few feet of his partner when Sutherland struck up the car. But he did not want to run the risks Sutherland took. Sutherland liked the excitement, but he did not like the danger of the chase. Sutherland collected the money, taking the glory of the lone bandit act and running a little risk with his partner to back him up.
Horning in these cases remained perfectly quiet until the cars reached the downtown streets and then left with other passengers without exciting suspicion.
GETTING VERY WARM.
Horning was yesterday put face to face with the charge of robbing conductor William Oberst of the Central-avenue line, last August. He held out until the officers who had been working quietly showed him the conductor's watch, which had been pawned. Yesterday afternoon the two officers took Horning from the station, ostensibly for a little walk. Horning was walked to a pawnshop, where he was identified as the man who accompanied Sutherland when the latter pawned the watch. Horning broke down and told about the robbery. "Unfortunately," the conductor had seen little of Horning during the affair. As usual, Sutherland had stepped forward and taken the money. In the dark stood a second man, his face concealed, his hand grasping a gun. He said he did not move, just stood there waiting a chance to take advantage of a false move on the part of either of the victims. The police now are positive that Horning was that second man. They have some of the details from his own lips, but he may have been signing a written confession, substantiating the verbal one made by him yesterday.
The strongest case against the man, and the one which will probably be used in the felony complaint to be filed today, is the shooting of Vervoort at Ninth street and Grand avenue, several weeks ago. Vervoort was stopped by two men at the mouth of the alley. He yelled and ran, and then turned to look back. As he did so, one of the men fired, hitting him in the shoulder.
He was not robbed, but was left lying in the alleyway. At that time every effort was made to find a motive for the shooting. The motive was not robbery. Vervoort had no love affairs, and neither personal nor business enemies. In Sutherland's history, however, he himself before his tragic end, he confessed to the shooting of Vervoort, but stated that it had been a mistake.
"We were lying for a party Little Jap who kept a restaurant on Ninth street," said Sutherland in his confession. "This Jap had insulted a girl friend of my partner, and we knew he always carried a gun. One night we took no chances. We intended to rob him and kick the stuffing out of him because of the insult he had offered to my partner's girl. We hid in the alley, where he lived with other Mongolians, and with drawn revolvers, waited for him. At about the right hour we saw a man whom we thought was the Jap coming toward us. We started to hide. He saw us, and he turned and ran, and then dodged behind a post, and looked back. We

MYSTERY IN GIRL'S ATTEMPT ON LIFE.
Miss Hortense Pasqualina, who went to the end of the wharf at Ocean Park, intending to leap into the sea, but changed her mind when she saw the crowd, and came back to the city and took poison. She will recover.
Hortense Pasqualina, 16 years old, of No. 343 West Temple street, tried to commit suicide last night. The girl is employed in the stationery department of Brock & Peck's jewelry store and bears an excellent reputation, and never before gave any evidence of suicidal tendencies.
Why the young girl attempted to take her life is a mystery, although she says it is because her mother refuses to let her go out at night with young men. Whatever the real reason Miss Pasqualina was determined to die.
She walked to the corner of Temple street and Broadway avenue, a few blocks from her home, sat down on the curb and drank almost the entire contents of a half ounce bottle of chloroform. The remaining drops she emptied on her handkerchief, which she spread over her nose and mouth.
As she reeled to the sidewalk after swallowing the poison, Fred McPherson, who is employed at the Edison Electric Company, rushed to her aid. He tore the handkerchief from her face, and calling for assistance carried her to a nearby drug store. The police ambulance was summoned and the young woman was taken to the Receiving Hospital.
Physicians worked over her for an hour before she was pronounced out of danger. The girl upon regaining consciousness, expressed regret that she had not been successful in her attempt to take her life.
When found she had clasped in her hand a personal note in which was the name of Albert B. Morgan. The girl held this card tightly until the police took it. She said she had met Morgan at Ocean Park, Sunday, but declared he is a stranger to her and was with him only a short time.
The police last night tried to communicate with Morgan, but without success. That some could be found in the telephone directory. They are convinced that Morgan was only a chance acquaintance, and that the girl was in the grip of the mystery of the attempt by the girl to take her life.

FRESH FROM INDIAN LAND.
Troops of Famous Cavalry Regiment Arrive.
"Dandy Fifth" Still Crack Command as of Old.
Lieut. Sheridan Worthy Son of Hero Father.
Four troops of the old "Dandy Fifth" Cavalry, which is one of the most famous regiments in the world, were yesterday in Los Angeles in Panama yesterday morning, and went into camp at Agricultural Park.
They are on their way to Atascadero to take part in the big autumn maneuvers, and are fresh from the Indian country. Most of the cavalrymen are from Fort Huachuca, in the heart of the Apache country, where the old command fought so long ago against Victorio and Geronimo.
This is the regiment in which the soldier-author, Capt. Charles King, served under Merritt and Crook. It was in this regiment that he found Billy Ray and Jack Truscott and the beautiful Marion, the "Colonel's Daughter," and all the old sergeants he made famous.
They are all forgotten now. Most of the men and most of the officers look blank when you mention them.
Another adjutant is bossing the regimental band in place of gallant, natty little King; other lieutenants and other captains and other troopers are under the old colors.
A few of the old ones are left, however. Louis Von Der Muhlenbruch, the trumpeter who sounded stables last night, has been a cavalryman for thirty-one years—four years in the Prussian army and twenty-seven in our own. He served under Gen. Phil Sheridan and is now serving under young Phil, a lieutenant in command of one of the troops.
Col. W. B. Schuyler, who was to have superintended the practice ride of Col. Stewart, the "American Dragoon," is in command of the regiment. He is a veteran of many wars. He fought the Apaches in the old days, and in the Russo-Japanese War was with Kurapatkin as a military observer.
HOPE SNUFFED OUT.
The old regiment will probably never take part in another Indian uprising. Its last hope has just been snuffed out.
A few weeks ago some of the Apaches jumped a reservation and a mountain battery was sent after them. The "Dandy Fifth" was sent out on the reservation.
This is the story the girl tells of what she did yesterday.
"I went to work at Brock & Peck's, but I was feeling so bad that I decided to throw myself in the ocean. I took a car for Ocean Park, and when I got there I walked out on the wharf, intending to throw myself overboard. There were too many people on the wharf so I came back.
"I went into a drug store on the corner near the wharf and bought ten cents worth of chloroform. I told the clerk I wanted it to cure a toothache. He made me sign my name, and though I would go out on the beach and drink it and die, I met people everywhere and they looked at me so that I was afraid to take it. I walked up here, intending to throw myself overboard. I wish I was dead. I don't want ever to go home again."

UNIONITES TRY TO DISCIPLINE CONTRACTOR; GET JOLT.
Employer Tells Bosses They Deserve to Be Treated Like Dogs. Strike Follows, But Plenty of Independent Workmen Are Secured. Lone Policeman Cows Rioters.
"I'll treat you cowards like dogs; if you were men, I'd fight you with my fists," declared Contractor E. F. Gloege, when taunted by a crowd of labor-union strikers at Eighth and Olive streets yesterday afternoon. This remark nearly caused a riot, but the contractor summoned aid from the Police Station and one sturdy bluecoat sent out by Lieut. Dixon was sufficient to cow the entire gang of trouble-makers.
The contractor had ample provocation for his remark. He is said. He is building an automobile garage on a lot owned by the Title Insurance and Trust Company on Olive, just north of Eighth street.
Work had progressed without a hitch until yesterday morning, when a brace of unionists, dressed in riot gear, and "discipline" the contractor. They informed him that a "cukoo" had been issued from headquarters to the effect that the bricklayers must be paid $6 a day instead of $5, the good pay they were receiving.
Gloge endeavored to reason with them. He told them that the job was figured closely and that for plain brick-laying he could not afford to pay more than the customary scale. The bosses then declared a strike and the workmen left the premises in a body.
The contractor telephoned for more men and soon a fine lot of independent workmen arrived. As they began to work, the strikers gathered about, uttering vile taunts and threatening violence.
"I stood it as long as I could," stated Gloege, "but my patience was soon exhausted. One of the new men came to me, frightened half to death, and said he had been out of work for several months and needed the pay for his

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.
By filing a protest representing more than thirteen miles of property frontage, the Fifth Ward has blocked a proposal to pave a number of the southwest streets at the property owners' expense, in order that they may form a part of a storm-water system. Wednesday will be the day at the City Hall; on that afternoon a special Council committee will listen to charges preferred against Poundmaster Vacher.

Seven proposals were received yesterday for building the new Main Street concrete bridge across the Los Angeles River; the estimated cost is $106,000.

A conference was held yesterday between the Supervisors and members of the subcommittee of the Advisory Committee to the board relative to the good roads bonds sale. The Supervisors ordered that an election be held on October 1 to decide whether Belmont Heights shall be incorporated as a city of the sixth class.

Judge Bordwell yesterday heard testimony in the suit of George A. Fitch for divorce from Mrs. Corinne A. Fitch, on the ground of desertion, and ordered that the woman appear before him.

Fifth Ward Property Owners Decline to Pay for Paving Streets to Be Used as Avenues for Carrying Away Storm Water—Say City Should Pay Bill.

Protesting Fifth Ward property owners succeeded yesterday in blocking a proposed improvement by which Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth, Ninth, Tenth, Eleventh, Twelfth, Thirteenth, Fourteenth, Fifteenth, Sixteenth, Seventeenth, Eighteenth, Nineteenth, Twentieth, Twenty-first, Twenty-second, Twenty-third, Twenty-fourth, Twenty-fifth, Twenty-sixth, Twenty-seventh, Twenty-eighth, Twenty-ninth, Thirtieth, Thirty-first, Thirty-second, Thirty-third, Thirty-fourth, Thirty-fifth, Thirty-sixth, Thirty-seventh, Thirty-eighth, Thirty-ninth, and Fortieth streets in the Fifth Ward would be paved with asphalt in order to form a storm waterway in the southwestern part of the city.

The assessment district for this improvement is one of the largest ever established in the city; it contains more than twenty-two miles of property frontage. The protest presented yesterday contains more than thirty miles of frontage, or about two miles more than is necessary to stop the paving under the street assessment plan.

The State street-assessment law provides that where an improvement is to be paid for by property assessments it cannot be made if a majority of the property owners in the district protest. It was with regret that the Council passed resolutions yesterday abandoning all proceedings for this improvement, as it is one that was proposed by the engineering department for the purpose of solving the vexed storm-water problem in the southern part of the city.

While advocating the establishment of the proposed waterway, the Fifth Ward lot owners protested on the grounds that the improvement is one for which the city as a whole should pay from the regular tax levy. They say that all the streets in the district are already graded, and otherwise improved at the expense of the property owners, and that the city has no right to force them to pay for the storm-drain system.

While not required by law to act forth any reasons other than those implied in a signed protest, the property owners were ready to argue the ethical side of the proposal; they say that the storm water does not originate on their property; that it comes from another part of the city and that the owners of the property from which the water flows should be held at least jointly responsible.

The Council will ask the engineering department for suggestions for some other method of forming a waterway in the southwestern part of the city. It is possible that a portion of the streets in the abandoned district may be paved at the expense of the city as a whole.

WATERLOO STREET, TOO.
Property owners on Waterloo street in the Second Ward succeeded yesterday in stopping the proposed improvement of that thoroughfare. This street has been before the Council on various petitions and protests for more than a year. Just as the legislators reached a point where they were ready to turn the improvement over to the Board of Public Works for contract the property owners came to the Council bringing with them a protest signed by just ten feet more than half the frontage in the district, but this ten feet was sufficient to block the improvement.

Now the proceedings for both sections of the city are to be commenced all over again.

MANY BRIDGE BIDS.
COMPETITION IS SHARP.

Sharp competition developed yesterday in the bidding for the construction of the new $108,000 bridge on Main Street across the Los Angeles River. Seven construction companies submitted proposals; the bidders represent four States.

The new structure is to be built mainly of concrete, and the bids submitted on a schedule of specifications on different classes of concrete work. None of the bidders named a lump sum, and the result of the competition will not be known until the engineering department makes a report on the aggregate amount of each bid. On the main items the bidders are so close together that $500 would seem to cover three of the proposals. The cost of the bridge, if one of the bids offered yesterday is accepted, will be about $108,000.

COUNCIL BY-PLAY.
LOOKS LIKE POLITICS.

Street Inspector Edwards' recommendations for a reduction in the wages of the laborers in the street department from $2.25 to $2 a day drew political stump speeches from several Councilmen. They made this recommendation an excuse for explaining in public how dearly they love the man who works with his hands and how solicitous they are for his financial welfare.

purpose of considering the charges which have been preferred against Poundmaster Vacher and his deputies. At that time Mrs. Gleason, a host of her retainers will appear to give testimony to the effect that the present impounding system is bad, and that the poundmaster is worse. If half the charges brought against Vacher can be proved the city will be likely to have a new poundmaster or a new system of caring for stray animals. Among the exhibits presented to the Council yesterday was a badly torn silk waist; it is claimed that one of the deputy poundkeepers tore the waist to carry away a licensed dog.

Mrs. Gleason presented a long petition for relief yesterday and wanted to read it to the Council. She accuses the Mayor and the dog Committee of purposely shelving the investigation and keeping Vacher in office for political effect.

HIGH LICENSE.
SALOONS MUST PAY MORE.

Under the rose the Finance Committee of the Council is shaping the finances for the coming year with an eye to a sharp advance in the liquor licenses about January 1. The Councilmen have agreed informally among themselves that the time has come when "low license" in Los Angeles must be abandoned; about one-fourth the saloon-keepers of the city concur in this opinion. There would have been an increase in the present $100 a year but for the fact that the legislators and the liquor men could not reach an agreement as to the amount of the rise.

There was an informal discussion of the liquor-license question after the close of the Council session yesterday. It then developed that the "liberal element" in the City Hall is willing to concede an increase of the license to $125 a month; they would consent to $125 and possibly $200 a month license, if they could receive the assurance that the liquor interests would not but to the expense of fighting a prohibition initiative ordinance at the next general city election.

There appears to be a growing sentiment that the liquor license here for retailers shall be not less than $200 a month; those who favor this make it a condition that they will not compromise on $200 and no prohibition election.

In the central part of the city there are probably a dozen saloons that are willing to pay the $200 rate; the opposition to this license comes from the second-class saloons, the ones from which most of the trouble emanates. These will fight for the $100 a month rate as long as there is any hope.

The condition of the city's finances just now is such that an increase in the saloon licenses of $20,000 a month would be a veritable godsend. It would be sufficient to provide in single year all the fire protection urged by the Board of Fire Underwriters, with a surplus sufficient to build a couple of bridges.

New Spur Tracks.
The Council passed a resolution yesterday empowering the Board of Public Works to make an emergency contract with the Southern Pacific Company for building three spur tracks on the Jawbone division of the Los Angeles aqueduct. The board sent a communication to the Council asking for authorization to make the emergency contract; the reasons set forth are that the Southern Pacific Company offered to build the spur, for the actual cost of material and construction, and that the localities are such that no other contractor would be able to come even close to the prices quoted by the railroad.

Still Cogitating.
"Mafians" has become a favorite reply of the Council to urgent petitions for action on questions wherein politics is involved; the legislators appear to grow more wary weekly of putting themselves in record. Yesterday all the really important questions before the Council were taken under consideration, some for two weeks and others for indefinite periods. The health and fire department ordinances were set ahead for one week, the liquor-zone ordinance was moved over one month, and a number of minor salient ordinances are taken under advisement. Most of the Councilmen are still under the influence of the vacation haze.

More Charter Amendments.
City Attorney Hewitt has been asked for a written opinion whether the proper method for submitting other charter amendments along with those proposed by the Municipal League. The Councilmen have a few amendments of their own to propose. They would also like to know whether the charter amendments can be submitted to a vote at a general election, as they have no desire to incur the expense of a special election if it can be avoided.

Judge Refuses to Render Decision Until Woman Appears Before Him and Explains Her Part in Matter. Two Other Couples Freed from Irksome Marital Ties.

As evidence was given before Judge Bordwell yesterday, tending to show that George A. Fitch seeks to restore to Mrs. Corinne A. Fitch because of her desire to be free from marital bonds, the court continued the case until Wednesday morning, that Mrs. Fitch may appear and explain her part in the matter. Fitch alleged that he was deserted by his wife on August 20 last, after they had been married almost fifteen years.

"I and I separated, at her desire, in 1902," Fitch said. "When she informed me that she did not wish to continue marital relations with me, I paid her expenses for a course in shorthand at a Los Angeles business college. When she had completed it, she left me and worked in a business office for six months. I saw her occasionally, and finally she decided to return to me. But for several months her attitude toward me has again been cold. She says she does not care for me, and about August 20, I went to her attorneys and requested a divorce. She refused to sign a divorce, and I was informed that she would live with me no longer, and that she wished a divorce. So, the next day, I filed the petition for divorce. Fitch gave this explanation in response to the repeated questions of the court, who said that he had no intention of looking into the matter further before giving a decision.

John M. Stokes secured a divorce from Mrs. Myrtle Stokes in Judge Rives' court yesterday. He stated that Mrs. Stokes deserted him in January, 1906, without explanation or cause, and that he subsequently found her in a house of ill-fame at Oxnard. Judge Rives also granted a divorce to Mrs. Eva A. Canan from Ralford H. Canan, whom she married in 1902, and who, she testified, had never supported her.

SILENT ABOUT BONDS.
SUPERVISORS IN CONFERENCE.

A short conference was held yesterday between Supervisors Patterson, Wilson and Elder and two members of the subcommittee of the Advisory Committee to the Supervisors on the private sale of the $2,500,000 good roads bond issue. About the second day was maintained as to what transpired. The subcommittee is composed of P. J. Seaview, Mayor Early of Pasadena and George H. Stewart.

"I cannot say anything," said Mr. Patterson, when he was asked what had been done. "It is our business to report to the Advisory Committee."

After hearing from Attorney G. M. Spicer, for the petitioners, and from City Attorney Long of Long Beach, who opposed the calling of an election to decide whether Belmont Heights should be incorporated as a city of the sixth class, the Supervisors ordered that the election be called for October 1.

CONTRACT IN CONTROVERSY.
The Second District Court of Appeal has affirmed the judgment for the defendant, rendered in the Superior Court in the case of the Lumber Company against Cressie M. Stanton et al. The suit was over the validity of a contract. Judgment in favor of the defendant is affirmed in the case of James and Alice Mackel against Nolan & Smith, real estate dealers. The court affirmed a decree requiring the conveyance of certain property to them. Judgment is reversed in the case of the Patten & Davies Lumber Company against Dora May Gibson. The action was to foreclose under a mechanic's lien, and judgment was rendered in the favor of the defendant upon the ground of inaccuracy in description.

QUESTION OF JURISDICTION.
A writ of certiorari was granted by the Second District Court of Appeal yesterday in the case of Agnes and Cecil Richmond against the Superior Court and Judge Houser. The records of the case in the Superior Court will be reviewed by the Appellate Court, and some order probably made. The case was originally brought in the Justice Court on a charge of unlawful detainer. The question of title arose and now it must be determined what court has proper jurisdiction.

IMPORTANT CASES GO OVER.
In the United States District Court, yesterday, a number of important cases were continued for further disposition. The indictments against nine doctors accused of illegal practice were set forward until next court term. The case of the Southern Pacific Company, charged with discrimination and re-railing, was continued for one week.

TWO BANKRUPTCY PETITIONS.
John Dopkin of this city filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy in the United States District Court yesterday. His stated liabilities are $1161, and assets are $1161. The schedule of Clarence Grainger of Delano, Kern county, shows liabilities of $4093, and assets of $6145.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

YOUNG GIRL SUES. Mabel Carson, 12 years old, through her guardian, R. E. Carson, yesterday filed in the Superior Court a suit against the Los Angeles Railway Company for $10,000 damages of the loss of her leg, alleged to have been sustained by her on March 1 at Twenty-second and Main streets, when she fell from a trolley car while alighting.

Warner and Isaac Collins to set aside a lease to oil lands in the southeast quarter of section 22, the plaintiff alleges that the defendants have failed to comply with the terms of the lease by abandoning development work, and that he has suffered $25,000 damages, for which he asks.

ANNULMENT ASKED. Mrs. Marie Nelson yesterday filed in the Superior Court a suit for the annulment of her marriage to Clarence Nelson, whom she married at San Diego on July 3, 1907. She alleges that on September 1, she learned that her husband has another wife, and that she at once ceased to live with him.

THREATS ALLEGED. G. W. Youngblood was released on his own recognizance in Justice Seiph's court yesterday, pending the restoration of October 7 on a charge of threats, preferred by R. H. Rabin, as the result of a quarrel.

COMPLAINTS OF WOMAN. Mrs. Lucy Hogan of No. 5218 Latham street was arraigned before Judge Bordwell yesterday on complaint of E. E. Danforth of No. 5222 Latham street, who says that she threatened to injure him last Saturday. She was set for October 1, and she was released by Justice Sumnerfield on her own recognizance. Mrs. Hogan said that while she was sprinkling her lawn, some one called her various names, she stated and she merely told him she would do as she pleased with her own hose, and that if he interfered, she would "see about it."

INCORPORATION. Articles of Incorporation were filed yesterday with the County Clerk by the Los Angeles Land Syndicate, capital stock $25,000; Hollywood Publishing Company, capital stock $50,000. The Pacific Coking and Vaporizing Company gave notice of removal from Los Angeles to San Francisco.

The case of Maudina Canty against the Southern Pacific Company was set for trial in the United States District Court yesterday afternoon, and judgment entered for the plaintiff. The case was a consideration. The plaintiff sued to recover damages for the death of her husband, an engineer in the employ of the defendant. According to the statements of the attorneys, the negligence was the main cause of the accident which resulted in his death.

KEEP SECRET.

FOOL FRIENDS BY ELOPEMENT.

YOUNG COUPLE MARRIED OVER FIVE WEEKS AGO.

Confess Their Romance at Last to Bride's Parents and Begin Second Honeymoon With Blessings and Home of Their Own—Trip to Beach Chance for Wedding.

For just five weeks Mrs. Rex D. Weston kept secret her elopement and marriage on August 8, and it was only yesterday that she surprised her parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Maescher of No. 217 West Twenty-fifth street, with the story that she is a wife. She was forgiven on the spot.

As Miss Roxie Maescher, Mrs. Weston was one of the popular young people of the West Side, and where she met her present husband, early last spring, it was practically a case of love at first sight. Mr. Weston is president of the Bungalow Plan Company, and there was talk of a fine wedding with flowers and bridesmaids and all the trimmings.

But during the last week in July the young people met at a house party in Avalon, Catalina Island, and there they decided that a society wedding would not make them any happier; and besides, it would take a long time to prepare, etc. Then they made a plan to elope just as soon as they could after returning to Los Angeles. This was done on August 8, on Saturday, August 1. The next day Miss Maescher detailed the whole plan to her chum, Miss Delphine Martin, who was delighted. It was so romantic to be a bridemaid in an elopement, Mr. Weston also made a confidant of Frederick Biern, for a whole week these four talked over their plans and never a soul suspected that cupid was master of ceremonies.

At last the fateful day came. It was Saturday, August 8. The conspirators made up a party of four to take an outing at Ocean Park and got a license, and last Saturday morning they were married in the First Presbyterian Church by the Rev. Mr. Stephenson. Miss Martin was the bridemaid and Mr. Biern was the best man.

Then they all started on the wedding trip to Ocean Park, as planned for the following day. On the morning of the wedding, Mr. Weston and Miss Maescher were married in the First Presbyterian Church by the Rev. Mr. Stephenson. Miss Martin was the bridemaid and Mr. Biern was the best man.

There is no other cleanser which can take its place. Gold Dust is the greatest boon ever invented for women. Order a package at your grocer's to-day, and what "easy housework" means.

Don't Delay—Buy Now

Among the many reasons why you should buy your piano in this sale are the following:

1. You can buy a new piano or a second-hand piano.

2. You can choose from every piano of excellence made in this country.

3. You can choose from every imaginable size and finish.

4. You can compare tones right here in this store. You are bound to find just the right piano for your home.

5. You know you are paying the right price—all instruments are marked in plain figures, and there is absolutely no deviation from these prices, except that when you buy on time you pay 6 per cent. interest.

The instruments I am selling are giving the utmost satisfaction. Unless this were so, I could not do business, but people who have already bought are bringing their friends in—no better proof than this can be given. Lieut. Sheridan, son of the dashing general, watching "stables."

FROM INDIAN LAND.

ridge clips and the bolts and the leaf lights. A vague smile was on the lips of the old man. He wasn't thinking of the Springfield and he wasn't thinking of the boy corporal, perhaps he was thinking of the father of the young officer with the grin like a fox, watching the grooming of his horses. Perhaps he was thinking of another Phil Sheridan, who was once a troop commander and watched his horses being groomed.

FINE GROUP OF OFFICERS.

Young Sheridan is a fine officer. Nearly all the officers with the "old regiment" seem to be tip top military experts and the enlisted men speak well of them.

They are types of the "new army"—surprisingly young, well groomed and very much in earnest.

The son of Phil Sheridan looked as concerned over a raw spot on one of his troop horses, caused by the ride in the car, as though it was his own skin that had suffered.

The camp is generally kept open to the public and it is a good sight when, late in the afternoon, one of the trumpeters sounds "Stables" and the men march down by troops to the picket lines. It is pleasant to hear the click, click of the curry combs and the voices of the officers cautioning the men and to see the "top sergeant" and the captain walking along the lines looking sharply for a speck of dirt left on a horse's hide.

CROPS GOOD, NO DISEASE.

Wine and grapes do splendidly in Elsinore Valley—Grammer School Opens.

ELSINORE, Sept. 14.—The grammar and primary grades of the public school opened this morning with a good enrollment.

A fine walnut crop is maturing in this valley. A large number of trees have been set out the past two or three years. There is no blight here. Grapes also have no disease and grow almost without care. A winery at the head of the lake takes care of much of the grape output of the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Iselen, who were married last week in Los Angeles, have arrived to spend some time at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Bethurum.

John Squire, who has been the guest of Jack Ray, has returned to Claremont.

DIES AT RIVERSIDE. News has been received of the death in Riverside, Saturday, of Mrs. J. B. Davis. She was a sister to Emmor Gravel, late Recorder of Riverside county.

Her father, H. I. Gravel, and other relatives reside in Riverside. Rev. Dr. Scott of Santa Barbara county, is expected to fill the vacancy made by the retirement of Rev. A. J. Compton from the pastorate of the Presbyterian Church here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Traphagen will leave tomorrow for an extended eastern trip.

Capt. L. B. Peck has left for Los Angeles and Pasadena, where he will visit at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Clyde Thompson, and his son, Clarence Peck, for a couple of weeks.

T. Hansen and daughter of Ocean Park, who have spent several weeks at the Penny cottage on Ribley street, have returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Kiehl and family and Miss Altha Burfene have returned from Oceanside.
